WIFE ADMITS MURDER; ACCUSES HUSBAND

Two Different Confessions Made
by Woman of Brownville,
N. Y., Say the Police.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., April 28.—Mrs. James Farmer, who, with her husband, is held at the county jail, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan of Brownville, whose body was found packed in a trunk yesterday, has made two confessions of the crime, according to the police. In the first she stated that it was she who struck the blows with the ax, as Mrs. Brennan was looking out of the window with her back turned. Mrs. Farmer had the trunk in readiness for the body, she said. When confronted with the body of the victim, the police say, she made the alleged second confession, and said:

"I may as well tell the truth, Jim did it. I found him leaning over her body. He had the ax in his hands and said to me, with an oath, 'That's the end of her.' The post mortem examination disclosed that the woman's head had been crushed in by a blow on the left side that severed the ear, and her face was a network of cuts, where blows had been rained on her after she had fallen.

Both the prisoners retain great composure and show no worry as to their position. The officers have allowed Mrs. Farmer to keep her 3-month-old baby in her cell.
